A festival is an event ordinarily celebrated by a community and centering on some characteristic aspect of that community and its religion or cultures. It is often marked as a local or national holiday, mela, or eid. Next to religion and folklore, a significant origin is agricultural. Food is such a vital resource that many festivals are associated with harvest time.

There are an estimated 92.1 million Egyptians. Most are native to Egypt, where Egyptians constitute around 91% of the population. Approximately 84–90% of the population of Egypt are Muslim adherents and 10–15% are Christian adherents (10–15% Coptic, 1% other Christian) according to estimates. The majority live near the banks of the Nile River where the only arable land is found.
