A while back I wrote about the Alexa Prize, a university competition where participating teams are creating socialbots focused on advancing computer to human interaction. We are now in year two, heading into the final stretch for 2018 and I thought I would give everyone an update. For those who aren't familiar, Alexa Prize teams use customer feedback to advance several areas of conversational ...

Do you know when your website goes down? Website's availability is a critical part of Business; we can't stare at the monitor for all the time. Setting up a command center and monitoring team is feasible for a large organization to monitor their web applications uptime but not for small-medium business, non-profit organization or personal blogger.
