The Cinderella complex was first described by Colette Dowling, who wrote a book on women's fear of independence — an unconscious desire to be taken care of by others. The complex is said to become more apparent as a person grows older. The complex is named after the fairy tale character Cinderella. It is based on the idea of femininity portrayed in that story, where a woman is beautiful ...

French-American relations refers to the relations between France and the United States since 1776. France was the first ally of the new United States due to its 1778 treaty and military support in the American Revolutionary War. The relations are part of France's Americas relations. The Franco-American relationship has been generally peaceful (except for large-scale fighting in 1798 and small ...
