Party games are games that are played at social gatherings to facilitate interaction and provide entertainment and recreation. Categories include (explicit) icebreaker, parlour (indoor), picnic (outdoor), and large group games. Other types include pairing off (partnered) games, and parlour races. Different games will generate different atmospheres so the party game may merely be intended as an ...

A: You could find out who currently owns the mineral rights under the property by searching the land records at the county clerk's office, or online. In lieu of that you could contact a local abstract office and have them do the search for you. The county clerk's records can be searched for free however so I'd try that first.
