Global citizenship is the idea of all persons having rights and civic responsibilities that come with being a member of the world, with whole-world philosophy and sensibilities, rather than as a citizen of a particular nation or place. The idea is that one's identity transcends geography or political borders and that responsibilities or rights are derived from membership in a broader class ...

Citizenship is the status of a person recognized under the custom or law as being a legal member of a sovereign state or belonging to a nation.. A person may have multiple citizenships such as dual citizenship. A person who does not have citizenship of any state is said to be stateless, while one who lives on state borders whose territorial status is uncertain is a borderlander.
