The war on cancer began with the National Cancer Act of 1971, a United States federal law. The act was intended "to amend the Public Health Service Act so as to strengthen the National Cancer Institute in order to more effectively carry out the national effort against cancer". It was signed into law by President Nixon on December 23, 1971.

Well, the way you worded the question makes it seem that the US is the aggressor; so that makes it easy. Given that there are no victory conditions stated in the question, I will assume that the US started the war not to conquer and hold, but to eliminate a potential threat; a first strike, if you will.
